

THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

- Explanation of our New MAP of the Coast of AFRICA &c
1. The Northernmost Settlement is that at Arguin, on the Gum Coast, belonging to the French.
 2. The River Senegal, the French have Forts and Factories several Miles up, and thereby engross all the Gum Trade of the Coast.
 3. The Isle of Goree, the French have a strong Castle.
 4. Gambia River has James Fort and Island, belonging to the English Company; together with several Factories for above 600 Miles up the River; such on the North as Gillifree, Joar, Cuttejar, Samy, Wally, Fatatenda, Baracunda; and on the South of the River, they have the following Factories, Cabatu, Vintain, Geregia, Tancronwall, Brucoe, Jemarow, and Yamyamacunda. &c.
 5. Cutcheo and Bijago, two Portuguese Settlements.
 6. Bijago, a Portuguese Factory.
 7. Sierra Leone River. The English Company had on this River, before 1728 a Factory at Bence Isle and the Isle of Tafsa, but have had none since.
 8. Sherbro, on York I. the English Company had a Fort here, but have now only a Factory.
 9. Ancobra, the first European Factory on the Gold Coast, belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See the separate Map of the Gold Coast on a larger Scale.
 10. Axim, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See large Map.
 11. Fredericksburg, at Cape Three points, a Fort and Factory belonging to the Dutch West India Company.
 12. Dixcove, a Fort belonging to the English African Company.
 13. Boutrou, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See separate Map of the Gold Coast.
 14. Taccarado, a Factory-house, belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
 15. Succondee, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
 16. Chamah, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
 17. Commenda, a Fort belonging to ditto.
 18. S. Jago, a Fort on the top of a hill, within gun shot of S. George delmina, belonging to ditto. See ditto.
 19. Elmina, or S. George del Mina, the principal Fort on the Gold Coast, belonging to the Dutch Company. See ditto.
 20. Phipps's Tower, built for defence of Cape Coast towards the land: Also F. Royal and Queen Ann's point for the same cause.
 21. Cape Coast Castle, the principal Fort and Factory, belonging to the English African Company.
 22. Mouree, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See separate Map of the Gold Coast.
 23. Annishan and Agga, are occasional Factory-houses for the English Company. See ditto.

24. Annemaboe Fort, belonging to the English Company, but relinquish'd for want of support before the year 1730. also lately necessary to be rebuilt for English account, the French having supplied their Sugar Colonies from hence, where they have no right to trade, with vast quantities of the choicest Negroes upon the whole coast, and having also attempted to build a Fort there since the English have abandon'd it. See Gold Coast Map.
25. Cormantine, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
26. Tantumquerry Fort, belonging to the English Company. See ditto.
27. Appam, or Apong, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
28. Winnebah, a Fort belonging to the English Company. See ditto.
29. Barracoe, a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company. See ditto.
30. Sheddoo, a Factory belonging to the English Company. See ditto.
31. Accra, also a Fort belonging to the Dutch West India Company, within gun shot of the last mentioned English fort. Also Accra, a Fort belonging to the King of Denmark, about 2 miles to E. of the Dutch fort.
32. Prampram, a Factory belonging to the English Company. See Gold Coast Map.
33. Whydah has a Fort called Williams Fort belong to Eng. Comp.
34. Loango S. Pauli, where the Portuguese have several Forts and Settlements, and a large City, and carry on an inland advantageous Trade for some hundred Miles.

A new and correct MAP of the COAST of AFRICA from Cape Blanco Lat. 20. 40. N. to the Coast of Angola Lat. 11. S. 1753. With Explanatory Notes of all the Forts and Settlements belonging to the several European Powers.

N.B. The Gold Coast is extended about 60 Miles, beginning with the Gold River 3 miles west of Afrine or 12 miles above Axim, and ending with the Village Ponnii or 8 miles east of Accra. The Gold Coast comprehends all the Countries from the Uncobresian River to the Village Ponnii, in number, viz. Axim, Ante, Adom, Tabi, Commami, Fetu, Saboe, Fanyin, Acrin, Agonna, & Aquamboe; each containing 1, 2, or 3 Towns or Villages, lying upon the Sea Shore; their most populous Towns being generally farther inland. The English here have great opportunities to extend the inland Commerce.

A Separate MAP of the GOLD COAST upon a larger Scale.

N.B. Besides this Map of the Coast of Guinea, there will also be given gratis to the Subscribers with the second Volume of Postlethway's Universal Dictionary of Commerce, a complete Map of Africa, with improvements upon that of Mons. D'Anville; and remarks on the encroachments of the French there upon the English and other powers: upon the same scale as that of D'Anville.